Re: Cleophas E. L'Heureux
Committee Man, Ship 52

Dear Karl:

You will recall that in October I wrote asking for a confidential record sheet on Cleophas E. L'Heureux. Although the name is so unusual, we will probably be able to identify him immediately, we would like to have a description of him.

I followed up in November, with no reply. I am enclosing another confidential record sheet, will you please return it as soon as possible.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Karl:

Thank you for the information concerning Mr. L'Heureux.
We have placed this in our file and noted the unit record accordingly.

I believe your letter and the newspaper clipping will be enough information for us other than the description. Will you please provide that on the enclosed confidential record sheet.

Dear Basil:

The man listed on the attached clipping is one, Cleophus B. L'Heureux, registered through 31 March 1962 as a Committeeman of Explorer Ship 5052 in Duxbury in our Council. There's a typographical error on the newspaper's part.

I realize the man has not come to trial, but did want to inform you regarding this.

Have also learned that L'Heureux was picked up on a morals charge in either 1954 or 1957 in a case involving a 15 year old girl. This incident was kept quiet. L'Heureux was released from charges provided he take psychiatric treatment.

Will wait to hear from you before we proceed further.

Sincerely,

Karl

Middleboro

A Duxbury father of five children was sent to the Taunton State Hospital for 35 days observation after trial before Judge L. Francis Callan in Fourth District court, Middleboro, Wednesday.

Cleophas E. L'Hendreu, 44, was ordered committed after being charged with morals offenses by Patrolman Joseph E. Quelle. L'Hendreu, a Providence marine insurance man, was arrested Tuesday night after a complaint was received from the father of an eight-year-old Middleboro girl. The case was continued to Oct. 10 for finding and disposition.

Albert Barboza, 25, of 37 Cedar street, Wareham, was fined $350 for deriving support from the earnings of a prostitute in Lakeville July 30. He was given until Saturday to pay the fine. State Trooper Carl Cederquist told the court that the offense involved a Rochester woman and seven men.

Breaking and entering a Mattapoisett tavern and the theft of 14 bottles of liquor cost Stephen Pereira, 24, of 44 St. James street, Fall River, a $75 fine. Payment was suspended to Sept. 13. Complainant was Chief Alden C. Kinney of Mattapoisett.
